

Interested in studying comparative law and politics in Rome at the end of the summer?

Consider applying for an Exploration Seminar with the Law, Societies and Justice Program!

When: August 22 – September 21

- Want to learn more about why the Eurozone is in crisis?
- Wonder what has happened to former Italian PM Silvio Berlusconi?
- Wonder whether the criminal-justice system works better in Italy or the US?
- Wonder whether Google plays by the same rules in Europe as in the United States?

These questions and more will be answered during an intensive month-long program at the UW Rome Center!

The Law School and the UW Law Societies and Justice program are offering an interdisciplinary program on comparative law and politics. This program is now in its eighth year. Undergraduates will receive 10 credits for this intensive program.

Please visit the IPE Website,

http://studyabroad.washington.edu/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgram&Program\_ID=10731&Type=O&sType=O, to apply. Please visit the Law/LSJ in Rome Website, <http://courses.washington.edu/ljroma/>, for further information. If you have questions, please feel free to email Professor Anita Ramasastry at arama@uw.edu.